LOCATION

Semliki Safari Lodge is situated in the Toro-Semliki Wildlife Reserve in the heart of the Albertine Rift Valley. The reserve is bordered by the foothills of the Rwenzori Mountains and Lake Albert.

375km west of Kampala (5.5 hour drive)

Previously known as the Toro Game Reserve, Semliki Wildlife Reserve is the oldest protected area in Uganda. It is unique, gifted with geographic barriers that have formed a natural haven for wildlife.

SEMLIKI LODGE IS OPEN THROUGHOUT THE YEAR AND HAS THE FOLLOWING SEASONS:

Dec.-March: hot & dry

April-June: rainy season

July-Sept.: dry with occasional passing rain

Oct.-Nov.: short rains

Temperatures are typically warm, but warmer clothing may be needed for evenings/early mornings during the rainy season.

FAUNA & FLORA

Mammals: The Reserve boasts 4 of the big five (excluding rhino)

Birds: Over 425 species

Special Attractions: Shoebills are regularly seen on boat trips on Lake Albert.

Forest & savannah elephants coexist in the reserve and produce offspring. There is a dry habitat chimpanzee community living in one of the forests.
